IV. Minors

In case of children, teenagers or persons who are subject to legal protection under civil law, they must present a Visa Application Form signed by both parents, or by those exercising parental authority or legal guardianship. If the Visa Application Form is delivered by one of the parents, he/she must present a notarized authorization form signed by the other parent who authorizes the visa application.

When minors or persons who are subject to legal protection under civil law present the Visa Application Form by themselves, or accompanied by someone different from their parents or whoever exercises parental authority or legal guardianship, it is mandatory to submit a notarized document in which both parents or of those who exercise parental authority or legal guardianship, authorize the minor to apply for a Mexican visa.

In case of minors, the application form must be signed by both parents or legal guardians, or those who exercise parental authority.

V. Attached supporting documents

- 3) _____
- 4) _____
- 5) _____

In case where the applicant presents altered, apocryphal or fraudulently obtained documents, he/she will be registered on the immigration control lists and the visa to enter Mexico will be denied.

According to Mexican Law and Regulations, the Mexican visa allows a foreign person to present himself/herself at a point of international transit and, at the Customs and Revision checkpoint, apply to enter Mexican territory. The bearing of a visa does not guarantee entry to national territory. Admission to Mexico is subject to the approval of sanitary and immigration authorities at the point of entry, who may verify at all times the fulfillment of the legal requirements for entry.
