

TEMPORARY RESIDENT

- A Temporary Resident Visa is the first step if you want to stay in Mexico more than 180 days and less than 4 years.
- The visa approval can take up to 10 business days, is valid for six months and includes one entry. Once the applicant arrives in Mexico, it is mandatory to present the Temporary Resident Visa at the INM (National Institute of Migration) within the first 30 calendar days of arrival, in order to request a Temporary Resident Card, valid for a period of time from 1 to 4 years.
- A temporary resident visa does NOT allow the visa holder to work in Mexico, unless a working permit has been previously authorized by the INM.
