IMME BECAS 2026

March 29th to May 4th

LOCAL MATCHING FUNDS CALL MODEL

Mexico's Consulate in Detroit, with the support of Mexico's Ministry of Foreign Affairs through the Institute of Mexicans Abroad (IMME), calls on education institutions and social organizations to participate in the 2026 IMME-Becas edition to obtain economic resources destined to Mexican students currently enrolled in an academic program offered by social organizations/education institutions in the United States in one of these two modalities.

ADULT EDUCATION

Literacy, elementary, secondary, GED, HiSET, computer training, job training, and ESL and job education classes.

HIGHER EDUCATION

Universities, community colleges, university extension programs, technology education, specific courses (including online courses).

If you are part of an organization or institution interested in contributing to educational development, approach the Consulate of Mexico in Detroit.

BASES

- Education institutions and social organizations may present their IMME-Becas application form at the Consulate of Mexico. The total amount for 2026 is stated in annex 1, as well as the information where the application form may be presented.
- Only applications officially supported by the Consulate of Mexico and committed to contribute at least the same amount as the one requested will be considered.
- Incomplete applications will not be accepted nor those presented after this call's deadline. For those applications received by mail, the post date will be taken into consideration.

It is the participating organizations/institutions responsibility to make sure that their application form was received by the Mexican Consulate.

REQUIREMENTS

Hand in corresponding application form signed by the organization/institution's representative and the following annexes:

- The institution/organization's bylaws.

Include a proposal (not longer than two pages) enclosing the following elements:

- Mission of the institution or organization.
- Description of:
  - The applicant organization/institution's: goals, activities, programs and achievements in the fields of education and personal development of the Mexican migrant community.
  - Its plans and projects to achieve its expected goals (anticipating the results to be reached with the IMME-Becas funds plus the additional resources) as well as the tools and procedures to evaluate the achievement of its goals.
  - Other money contributions anticipated or already received by the organization/institution to help achieve the project's goals and its activities.
- Detailed budget describing the organization/institution's expected expenses including a brief explanation of the expenses' purpose. Clearly explain how this financial support will be distributed among students and when they will be handed over to the recipients, depending on which option they are considered in.

SELECTION PROCESS

The Consulate will verify that all applications comply with this Call's requirements. Five prominent members of each consular circumscription, involved in education or community work, will form the Local Committee, responsible of the institutions/organizations' selection. For this reason, it is paramount the Local Committee be inclusive and consider the local education needs.

- Institutions/organizations capable to match the IMME-Becas funds they applied for will be prioritized.
- Community institutions/organizations involved in education for adult students may request the Local Committee to consider their operation costs (teachers' salaries, infrastructure) as equivalent of the provided funds.
- Only institutions/organizations whose work program complies with the goals and guidelines of this Call will be taken into consideration.
- The number of Mexican students (including those of Mexican origin) will be paramount when selecting the institution/organization which will receive the funds in accordance with each modality.
- To establish the sum to be granted, the written commitment enclosed in the application stating the amount the organization/institution will provide, is paramount to determine the sum to be granted by IMME-Becas.

SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

All issues not mentioned in this call must be settled by the Consul of Mexico in accordance with his or her attributions.
