

Technical Data Sheet – Mango from Nayarit, Mexico
Campeñinos de Nayarit Mango Producers Cooperative (CANAPROMA)

Aspect	Description
Producer Group Name	Campeñinos de Nayarit Mango Producers Cooperative (CANAPROMA)
Geographic Location	Municipalities of Nayarit, Mexico: Santiago, Ruiz, Tuxpan, Rosamorada, Tecuala, Acaponeta, San Blas
Estimated Export Volume (current)	Currently 2,000 tons of Kent mango available, with the option of contract farming and potential for higher volumes. (Harvest date: May 15)
Total Daily Production Volume	From May 15 to June 15 = 25 tons per day. Rest of the year: 100 kg per day.
Mango Variety	Kent (main variety intended for export)
Potential for Other Mango Varieties	Yes. Also produces Tommy Atkins (15%) and Ataulfo (5%)
Certifications	CAAE and USDA Organic Addenda Certificate (ID NOP 6250044001, 100% organic category); Mexican Organic Certificate (CAAE, EMA, and Orgánico México, ID Orgánico 44001); GLOBAL G.A.P., certifier Scientific Certification Systems.
Average Fruit Size (caliber)	9 – 12 (350 g – 600 g)
Ripeness at Packing	$\frac{3}{4}$ ripeness
Estimated Shelf Life (postharvest)	3 to 4 months under refrigeration
Ideal Transport and Storage Temperature	12 to 13 °C during transport / 18 to 20 °C in ambient storage
Production Municipalities	Santiago, Ruiz, Tuxpan, Rosamorada, Tecuala, Acaponeta, San Blas
Cultivated Area	520 hectares
Production Distribution by Variety	Kent 80%, Tommy Atkins 15%, Ataulfo 5%
Email	canapromanayarit@gmail.com
Contact Phone Number	Mr. Miguel Cantabrana – President of the Campeñinos de Nayarit Mango Producers Cooperative, +52 325 100 114