

STUDENT (LESS THAN 180 DAYS)

REQUIREMENTS:

1. Visa Application.
2. Valid passport and copy of the main page.
3. One color picture, passport size, front view, with no eyeglasses and white background.
4. Document that proves that the applicant is a foreign legal resident of the USA (I-797, I-20 advance parole, etc.). This only applies for non-U.S. citizens.
5. Application processing fee $54.00 Dollars (credit or debit card – Visa or Mastercard). Non refundable if not approved.
6. Proof of economic solvency to cover tuition, room, and board while in Mexico:
 - a) Original and copy of proof of investments or bank accounts with a balance of at least $2,206.96 US Dollars during the previous 3 months of statements, OR
 - b) Original and copy of documents showing that the applicant has a job, pension or scholarship that yields a monthly income of $1,471.30 US Dollars after taxes during the previous 3 months.

Economic solvency can be satisfied by the student, his or her parents, or whoever has the legal custody over the student, as long as he or she is not older than 25 years of age (in this case you must present a certified copy of the birth certificate or of the document that states the legal guardianship). It can also be proved by original document attesting that the student has received a full scholarship or document issued by a bank or financial institution showing that counts with the appropriate financing.

7. Original signed acceptance letter from the school or university where you will study (the institution must be accredited by the national education system in Mexico). Such letter should include:

- a) Your complete name and nationality.
- b) Fully describe the program to be studied, including level.
- c) Name of the course and dates when it starts and ends.
- d) Tuition cost.
- d) Full name and contact information of the school or university.

If the applicant is a minor both parents should be present to sign the application. If only one parent is present, it is mandatory to submit a notarized authorization (Spanish or English) from the other parent. If minors or persons requiring legal guardianship attend by themselves or someone different to their parents, it is mandatory to submit a notarized document in which their parents or legal guardianship authorize the visa application.

AFTER ENTERING MEXICO WITH THIS KIND OF VISA, YOU SHOULD GO TO THE NEAREST "INSTITUTO NACIONAL DE MIGRACIÓN" (INM) OFFICE TO GET YOUR RESIDENT ID.

To apply for a visa, you must first submit all required documentation for review via email: visasini@sre.gob.mx.

Once received and reviewed we will contact you to make an appointment via email visasini@sre.gob.mx. or by phone: (317) - 761-7600, Ext. 3116.

Normally, the visa will be issued on the same day of the appointment.

For more information please e-mail visasini@sre.gob.mx or visit our web page <https://consulmex.sre.gob.mx/indianapolis/index.php/tramites-consulares-previa-cita/visas>

Important:

- Requirements and or fees are subject to change at any time without previous notice.
- In case you are asked to support your application with complimentary documentation, you will be given a new appointment date.
- If you present a document issued from a country different than Mexico or the United States of America, it must come with an apostille or legalization as applicable, and with an official translation to Spanish.
