IV. Minors

In the case of children, adolescents or wards of the court, in accordance with civil legislation, the visa application form must be presented signed by the mother and father, or those who hold parental authority or guardianship. If the application form is presented by one of the parents, s/he must present notarized authorization from the other parent giving consent to processing the visa.

Minors applying alone or in the company of a third party of legal age must present a document granted before a notary public or by an authority empowered to do so, stating the authorization from both parents or those who hold parental authority or guardianship.

In the case of minors, the signature shall be that of the parents or guardians or those who hold parental authority.

- 4) _____
- 5) _____

In cases where an applicant presents documents that have been altered, falsified or obtained in by fraudulent means, it will be registered in the migratory databases and the applicant will be unable to obtain a visa to enter Mexico.

According to the Immigration Law and its Code, a Mexican visa allows a foreigner to appear in a place destined for international transit of persons and at the migratory screening port, and request entry to national territory. Presentation of a visa does not guarantee entry to national territory. Entering Mexico is conditional upon the approval of the health and migratory authorities at the point of entry, whom can verify at all times the requirements established in the legal provisions applicable at the migratory screening point.
