IMPORTANT TO CONSIDER

- We ONLY accept CASH. The fee is not refundable, regardless of the outcome of the process.
- Forms I-797 A, Advance Parole, Forms I-20 or DS-2019 are not accepted documents for entry to Mexico. If the visa of the United States in your passport is expired, you must apply for a Mexican visa in order to travel to Mexico. Applicants must be legally in the USA at the moment of applying for a Mexican visa.
- To consult the countries that require a Visa to travel to Mexico, please visit this webpage : <https://www.inm.gob.mx/gobmx/word/index.php/paises-requieren-visa-para-mexico/>
- No assurances regarding the issuance of visas can be given in advance.
- Therefore, final travel plans or the purchase of non-refundable flight/travel tickets should not be made until a visa has been issued.
- The physical presence of the applicant at the Consulate is an absolute requirement.
- Applications are individual.
- On the day of the appointment, the applicant will pay in cash the visa fee. The consular staff will collect applicants' documents and will collect biographic and biometric data; a consular officer will conduct an interview.
- Some visa applications require further administrative processing, which takes additional time after the visa applicant's interview. After the interview, the applicant will be informed what process to follow.
- Payment of the application DOES NOT GUARANTEE the approval or issuance of the requested visa.
- In case the visa is approved, the Consulate DOES NOT GUARANTEE the issuance of the visa the same day of the interview.
- The procedure to obtain a visa can take up to ten business days. Although we make the best effort to process your procedure in the shortest possible time, the issuance of the document is not guaranteed the same day of your request.
- If you are traveling to Omaha exclusively to process your visa, we suggest you consider a minimum stay of three business days in the city for the process.
- If the issuance of the visa is denied, the applicant may apply again if there is new evidence to overcome the basis for the refusal, the applicant will have to schedule another appointment.
- The fee is not refundable, regardless of the outcome of the process.
- Visas can be picked up PERSONALLY, they will not be mailed.
- Marriage certificates or birth certificates from a country different from the U.S. need to have the apostille or legalization stamp.
- Any official documents that are not issued by United States authorities need to be legalized/apostilled. Also, they will be required to have a certified translation if the documents are in a different language than Spanish and or English.
- If a permanent resident visa or temporary resident visa is approved, you must deliver it to the National Immigration Institute (INM) offices to get your residence card. You must deliver it to the INM office in Mexico within the next 30 calendar days after the date of entry in Mexico.
