

TEMPORARY IMPORT OF HOUSE EFFECTS REQUIREMENTS

Please read THIS information .

Household effects are defined as those items that constitute the furnishings of a house and are exclusively for use, on their daily needs, by a person or family. This includes clothes, bedding, books, works of art and scientific materials, as long as they are not part of a collection for expositions or art galleries.

In order to be allowed by customs authorities to import temporarily these items into Mexico you must present your inventory list at the Mexican Consulate in your area to be issued a certificate. This certificate is called CERTIFICADO DE LISTA DE MENAJE DE CASA A EXTRANJEROS. In order to apply for this document, the following is required:

1. Valid U.S. Passport. And four copies of the page with your personal data, picture and signature.
2. A typed letter addressed to the Consulate of Mexico providing your present address in the U.S. and the address where you will establish your residence in Mexico; you must also indicate that you intend to return your household goods to the US at the end of your stay in Mexico and to notify the customs authority of any change of residence while in the country.
3. All household effects must be included in an inventory list. The list must be in Spanish, and typed.
4. Each item must be numbered progressively. In case of electrical appliances or electronics you must specify make, model and serial number (including kitchen appliances).
5. The letter and the inventory list should be prepared in original and 4 copies.

Applicants must mail the documents required below addressed to: Consulate of Mexico, at 2550 Technology Dr., Orlando, FL 32804. Once the documents are reviewed and authorized by the Visa Department, an appointment to obtain the aforementioned certificate should be scheduled.

CONSULAR FEES

$127.00 USD

IMPORTANT

Importation of your household effects are temporary and only for the validity of your immigration permit, and you may import your household effects only once. No motor vehicle may be included in your household inventory list.
