

Marcelo Sada

Mr. Sada co-founded, Source Logistics and has served as its CEO since 1999. Under his leadership the company turned from scratch into a National Logistics, Fulfillment and Printing solutions company in the US, servicing the Food, Apparel, Consumer goods, Health Care and Financial industries. He has turned Source Logistics into a leading Logistics company in the US with locations in Los Angeles and Brea, CA, Houston and Laredo, TX, New Jersey, Chicago, Portland, OR and Hawaii; being recognized as one of the Fastest Growing Private Companies in the US on the Inc 500/5000 List 4 years in a row.

Mr. Sada, is active in finding creative solutions that benefit the trade between the US and Mexico; advisor in Boards of private companies as well as Former Member of the Business Advisor Board for NAFIN in Los Angeles and currently is part and former President of the ProMéxico Business Advisory Board in Los Angeles. He started his career at Bancomext (Mexico's Foreign Trade Bank) as then he held key Export positions for leading Mexican Manufacturers exporting to the US, then after opened his own company and became a consultant, importer and broker on how to export to the US; business that lead to move into the LA area and start Source Logistics. Graduated from the University of Monterrey major on International Studies.

