

María Ariza is CEO of AMEXCAP, the Mexican Association of Private Equity and Venture Capital Funds. AMEXCAP's membership is comprised of over 80 funds, from leading investment firms active in our country to local fund managers, and 35 specialist service providers. Founding partner of Facial Design S.A. de C.V., 100% Mexican manufacturer and distributor of beauty and personal care products. Partner and Board Member at Dabvsa (Desarrollos Aplicados al Buen Vivir S.A. de C.V), holding company focused on Senior Lifestyle developments and operations. Prior, Maria worked as Associate at NAFTA Fund of Mexico, a private equity fund investing in medium sized Mexican companies, where she analyzed and helped structuring investment opportunities, performed industry and financial analysis, managed due diligence processes and developed and implemented corporate strategies for the promoted companies of the portfolio. Maria worked as Director of the Project Management Office at Impulso, Grupo Empresarial, and at APEC Organizing Committee. Member of the board of Fundación CMR A.C. and Fundhepa A.C. Maria has a Business Management Master's Degree from Harvard University, qualified for the Dean's List of Academic Achievement Award, and holds a BS in Industrial Engineering Cum Laude from Universidad Iberoamericana.