

Center for Information and Assistance for Mexicans (CIAM)

All the information you need just one call away, 24 hours a day.

When you call CIAM, an operator can provide you information about consular services, U.S. immigration policy up-dates, as well as advice on relevant laws, regulations and your rights.

Center for Information and Assistance for Mexicans (CIAM)

Now you can call CIAM 24 hours a day to receive information about:

- Legal clinics.
- Community forums.
- Information workshops.
- Activities organized by the Consulates of Mexico on behalf of the Mexican community in the United States.

Center for Information and Assistance for Mexicans (CIAM)

CIAM has your back 24 hours a day to:

- Locate missing relatives if you lost contact with them while they crossed the border.
- Locate a family member or loved one who has been detained or arrested.
- Provide information on legal and immigration matters.
- Share the latest up-dates on U.S. immigration policy.
- Keep you informed about community forums, workshops and legal clinics organized by our Consulates.

Center for Information and Assistance for Mexicans (CIAM)

CIAM is with you 24 hours a day to:

- Provide accurate and up-to-date information about U.S. immigration issues.
- Assist if you have been the victim of abuse or fraud or if your rights have been violated.

Call CIAM with any questions about your rights in the United States.